

A Conversation with the 2013 Dayton Literary Peace Prize Winners and Presenters

Sunday, November 3
10:30 a.m. Registration
11:00 Program

Sinclair Community College
Building 12—Ponitz Center (North End)

Free Underground Parking (underground parking entrance on W. 4th Street west of the intersection with South Perry Street)

The 2013 Winners

- Wendell Berry, Recipient of the Richard C. Holbrooke Distinguished Achievement Award
- Adam Johnson, winner in Fiction for The Orphan Master's Son
- Andrew Solomon, winner in Nonfiction for Far from the Tree
- Gilbert King, Nonfiction Runner-up for Devil in the Grove

Will be joined by Former Winners

- Tim O'Brien, Recipient of the 2012 Richard C. Holbrooke Distinguished Achievement Award
- Andrew Krivak, 2012 Fiction Award winner for The Sojourn
- Maaza Mengiste, 2011 Fiction Runner-up for Beneath the Lion's Gaze.

Reservations required. RSVP to Linda Harrison at: peaceliterature@att.net or (937) 859-9106 by Wednesday, Oct. 30. $10 donation in cash or check to DLPP Foundation at the Registration Table. No Credit Cards.
Limited seating; Reservations limited to the first 300 who register.